"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

RACING SPORTS

The regular, bona-fide net paid city circu and exceeds that of any one of them by much MORE than a million cer month.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1901.

ALL NEWS KEPT FROM SCHLEY; HE DECLARES IN HIS TESTIMONY BEFORE THE BOARD TO-DAY HE DID NOT DISOBEY ORDERS.

VALET OF STOKES TELLS ABOUT ROSAMOND BARCLAY

Into the tragic, checkered life of Edward S. Stokes, now dying at the home of his sister, Mrs. Howard Mc-Nutt, No. 731 St. Nicholas avenue a new romance has come. But like all else that has made up his life, it is a romance that bids fair to de-Rosamond Langdon Barclay, well known to his friends, declares herself his wife.

She tells of a marriage a year or more ago in Canada. She says she has a marriage certificate in Charging that Mr. Stokes was induced to go to his sister's home by trickery, and that he is now being detained there against his will. she threatens to appeal to the courts for permission to see him.

(Story of Stokes's Valet.) The valet of Mr. Stokes is Henry Dennist, an exceptionally intelligent negro. For many years this man has been the shadow of his master. He knows more of the life of the slayer of Jim Fisk than any other man inows.

Dennist told to-day the following "In 1892, when Miss Barclay was but sixteen years old, and in school, rounding her marriage to Mr. Stokes, Mr. Stokes met her through a news- "was Rosamond Langdon Barciay. I Mr. Stokes met her/through a newsschool where she was, and she consented to come to New York.

ments were luxurious, her gowns and he was an old friend of the family. were handsome, her jewels were grand.

"At the time Mr. Stokes met Miss Barclay her mother and her brother was staying. The place where we were were living at Ardsley-on-the-Hud- married is on the St. Lawrence River. About a year ago they came to the home in West Seventy-ninth treet.

Known as Miss Barclay.

"She was known in the neighborhood as Miss Barclay, and it was known that her mother and her brother were living with her. It was also known that Mr. Stokes lived at the house, but it was generally supposed that he was a boarder.

the last stages of Bright's disease. and he is lingering along awaiting the end. He knew that he was doomed months ago, but bore up as long as possible.

"While he was declining in health, Miss Barclay became quite friendly with W. E. D. Stokes, Mr. Stokes's cousin.

"If ever two men hated each other these men do. They have big law- Henderson, at the Manhattan Hotel last other with great bitterness. Mr. three years ago.

Stokes did not know for quite a while They have known each other from steamer and followed by next ship."

W. E. D. Stokes had asked Miss Bar-years old, came to America two years clay to get Mr. Stokes to consent to a compromise of the troubles bestanding when he left home that he was tween the cousins. Mr. Stokes was to return at the end of a year and be

Why Mrs. McNutt Acted.

"This state of affairs came to the knowledge of Mrs. McNutt, Mr. Stokes's favorite sister. She with her husband went to the house in Seventy-ninth street and had him removed to their own residence, where he is now dying.

"When he was safe in the home of the discovered to his dismay that he cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the fine of the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the fine of the least calculation a month to travel to England, get married and return to San Francisco. For a long time he could spare no time at all, but this year he found that he could spare two weeks in October.

He discovered to his dismay that he cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was to ching the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first train I can catch and I'll make her uncle Peterson eat the line was the cago on the first t won't be responsible for any more of went to get tickets that it would be Miss Barclay's bill.

whom she had dealt and told them to do.

that she must not be allowed to make purchases in the name of Mr. Stokes.

The had the house shadowed, and if any attempt is made to take the honeymoon to the utmest.

Says Sister Took Him witnesses appear on the records, which Away Because Woman Who Now Had Been band

Friendly with

Cousin, W. E.

Stokes.

0.

furniture out Mr. Stokes will be notifled immediately.

"That is the true story of the relation between Mr. Stokes and Miss Barclay."

The Evening World reporter found that tradesmen in the vicinity of protested against such a proceeding, for Mr. Stokee's home had been given the doctor had given orders that my Mr. Stokes's home had been given orders that Miss Barclay was not to be supplied with goods on his account.

The woman who claims to be the wife in Central Park, where she has at-To an Evening World reporter No. 200-West Seventy-ninth atreet. tracted much attention. She lives at Married One Year. "My maiden name," she said, when asked to tell of the circumstances surpersonal. He went to the first met Mr. Stokes when I was a little girl. He and my father, Charles Barclay, of England, were friends. I was "He came to this city and lived at Conn. Twelve years ago I again met the Hoffman House. Her apart- Mr. Stokes. He was kind to my father ### clergyman. That and the names of th are now in a safety deposit valut.

Kept Wedding Secret. "We took up our residence in this Claims Him as Hus- did not wish to have our marriage made which he wished to have settled up be His fore the announcement was made. He had occupied bachelor apartments befamily. He made his home in this house where my mother and brother also

> "Mr. Stokes became very ill about two months ago and grew steadily worse He had the best of medical care and attention. His sister, Mrs. Mary McNutt, and her husband, Howard McNutt, came here frequently to see him. Mr. McNutt insisted several times that Mr. Stokes, as ill as he was, should sit up and sign notes and papers. husband should not talk business with > > Spirited Away.

"Mr. and Mrs. McNutt were here on although he was very feeble. They re-turned on the following day. Dr. John S. Billings, jr., was also here. The physician said his patient was doing so well that he might take a drive. I or-dered the automobile to be brought, and James Walker, a trained nurse, went with my husband.

That was the last I saw of him. was taken to the home of his sister and Nicholas avenue. Alleged Wife Barred Out.

Conn. Twelve years ago I again met Mr. Stokes. He was kind to my father and he was an old friend of the family. "We were married on Aug. 18, 1900, at Shipmen's Point, Canada, by an Episch Copal minister who was travelling through that part of the country, and had been a patron of the hotel where I was staying. The place where we were married is on the St. Lawrence River.

Miss Anderson Planned London Wedding.

DAMSON-HENDERSON. -On Oct. 22, at Motel Manhattan, New Yeff, BALFOUR DUNLOF, con of Col. D. Adamson, of London. England, late Fourth Beegal Cavairy, to FLORA BSTELLA. Youngest daughter of James Henderson, publisher, London, England.

The wedding of Mr. Adamson and Mise with his cousin.

"We learned, not long ago, that But Mr. Adamson, who is twenty-six married.

He discovered to his dismay that he

"When he was safe in the home of his sister Mr. Stokes called me to him. He had brightened up and appeared to understand why he was married.

at his sis er's house.

It was Mr. Adamson's intention to "'Dennist,' he said to me, 'you go start for San Francisco on Wednesday, right out and tell everybody that I two weeks' limit. He found when he ins Barclay's bill... impossible to secure accommodations "I went to all the tradesmen with before Saturday. This will bring him

"Mr. Stokes for some time has been col, Adamson's Son and Young Henry, Lover of Miss Eugene Byron, Freed from Kaywood, Arrives on

William B. Henry, nineteen, the Chicago dentist, who pursued Miss Flor-ence Kaywood, an heiress of that city, across the sea and back, arrived on the Deutschland this afternoon, thirty-six hours behind his sweetheart.

His only luggage was a dress-suit case.

the Deutschland.

suits on hand and have fought each planned when they became engaged traps," said the young man. "Trunks other with great bitterness. Mr. Stokes did not know for quite a while that Miss Barclay had become friend, childhood and fondly expected that they would be married in a church in start for Chicago that he hardly had $250. Miss Kaywood had been spirited off to time to talk. "All there is to this is that I love her, and she loves me, and I'll follow her to the ends of the earth in spite of her relatives.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. Friday for New York City and vicinity: Fair and colder tonight; Friday fair: fresh to brisk northwest winds.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Lazative Bromo Quintne Tableta. All de gists refund the money if it falls to cure. E. grows eignature is on with box. 551, 80

ROOSEVELT RECEIVED LETTER THREATENING DEATH AT YALE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 24.—Police Chief Winn said to-hav that prior to President Roosevelt's visit to Yale the President had received a letter stating that if he came to New laven he would be assassinated. That accounted for the strong guard for the President maintained from the time he left Washington until he returned there to-day.

ELEVEN FATALLY HURT IN IOWA TRAIN WRECK

OTTUMWA, Ia., Oct. 24.—The Council Bluffs and Kansas

city passenger train was wrecked by a soft roadbed at Exline. year the Missouri line this afternoon. Thirty-six passengers were injured, eleven of whom probably will die.

CRSECEUS MAKES NEW WORLD'S RECORD.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24.—Cresceus, at the Kansas City Driving Park this afternoon, broke the world's trotting record carried up the steps of the house in 8t for a mile on a half-mile course, making the distance in 2.0914. The previous record, 2.0915, was made at Toledo. The time by "I have since that time made repeated quarters: First quarter, 0.32%; half, 1.04%; three-quarters, efforts to see my husband. Mr. McNutt 1.3616; mile, 2.0914. The track was trim and the weather consays he will not permit me to see Mr.

LATE RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

Fourth Race—Crocket 1, Winepress 2, Oudenarde 3. Fifth Race-Glenwood 1. Antoice 2. Menace 3.

AT WORTH.

Fifth Race—Rival Dare 1. The Boer 2. Mountebank 3 Sixth Race—Amote 1. Lou Woods 2. Dandola 3.

TO WED HIM. SUITOR HERE. HOLDS RECORD FOR CRIMES

Prison Three Weeks Ago, Again Arrested.

Since Eugene Byron was released from Albany penitentiary, less than three weeks ago, the police say he has:

Get a political job.

Buneged sixty Eastlane Color.

His whereabouts.

"The prisoner got the name 'Capt. Hellinger' by stealing it from Capt. Hellinger, for the Prisoners' Parole Sotlety. When he first came from the Albany Penitemiary Byron was under the espionage of Capt. Hellinger and became acquainted with him in the procept. The Admiral spoke deliberately, pronouncing his he expressed a preference for the spoke deliberately.

FOUGHT BOERS; GOES TO JAIL WANNED V TO weeks ago, the police say he has:

Buncoed sixty Italians out of an aggregate of $800. Persuaded a young woman marry him.

Buncoed a Jeweller out of engagement and wedding rings worth

Beat a backman out of $71. Spent all his wife's money, $170. Rubbed T. E. Schwab, of Philadelphia, of watches worth $1,800. "They don't like me and they have For this last offense Byron, who is tried to keep her away from me but also known as Eugene Hellringer, and they can't. I am going back to Chiball in Jefferson Market Court to-day.

Arrested in Baltimore, He was arrested in Baltimore by Detectives Kiernan and Rheaume, of this city, last Monday. "He is an ex-convict." said Detective Klernan, "having re ved two terms;in Massachusetts for forgery. He was incarcerated in the penitentiary at Albany, too, for two years for a sim; Hamilton Club, of Chicago, Wants lar offense. He was released on Oct.

4 from Albany, and came to this city.
"Through his plausible manners and his ability to speak Italian, Greek and French fluently, he procured a position | President, extended an invitation to as recording secretary of the Republican | Admiral Schley to attend a secretion at organization of the Sixth Assembly District under President Ellis S. Knapp, "Then he commenced swindling operathem political jobs, he secured an ag-

Italians. One of his dupes gave up $50. which was his entire savings, and he became crazy over it.

way."

Byron is considered an expert for-ger and confidence man by the police.

He is said to have stolen the watches from Schwab while the latter was stop-ping at the Hotel Martin.

Thanks Them for Careful Work

West Eleventh street, has written a letraise of the firemen who extinguished STEWARD DROWNED IN HOLD. The Sum the Largest Ever Reblaze in the church a week ago yes erday. He stated that the firemen Schooner Lida Powler Sank in dragged hose through the vestibule and lecture room to his study without letting a drop of water fall on either of the first two apartments, Commissioner Scannell referred the letter to Chief Croken, who wrote a letter of thanks to br. Nash.

INVITATION TO SCHLEY.

to Honor Him.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.-The Hamilto Club, one of the leading political organ-izations of Chicago, to-day, through its

GOVERNOR AT WEST POINT. ttended Reception To-Day and

Will Review Cadets To-Morrow. (Special to The Evening World.) WEST POINT, Oct. 24 .- Gov. Odell ar "A couple of weeks ago Byron induced a young woman named Della Green, at Maj.-Gen. C. F. Roe's home this who lived in Harlem, to marry him, "He buncoed a Third avenue jeweller" the buttallon of cadeta.

Admiral Declares He Had to Do a Lot of Guessing in Campaign and Never Got Positive Word that Spaniards Were at Santiago.

Admiral Schley appeared as a words distinctly. Calm and self-pos- Havana command. witness in his own defense before sessed, he entered upon his story, confidentially that whichever com the Naval Court of Inquiry for the first time this afternoon.

He went over the Cuban campaign, telling how he and Sampson had agreed that Cervera would head for Cienfuegos, and plans were laid accordingly.

Sampson had assigned him to blockade that point while he took the Havana patrol.

It seemed certain to him that the he bent all his energies in locating them and inviting a fight.

Lieut. Wood had done him an injustice in saying that he was disrespectful to Admiral Sampson. It was not true.

Schley denied that he had ever disobeyed orders, and held that lack Later. I am glad to say, the masking of information sent him, and which impossible, when the ships were under he did not get, kept him guessing, way in the column or line of battle to Any delay or supposed lapse was due to that fact.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.-Winfield Navy, went on the witness stand in the Naval Court of Inquiry at 2.10 o'clock this afternoon to tell his story effect upon the enemy, and the second of the events of the Spanish-American the confusion it would create. The war. He took the chair when Attor- attack the centre or rear of an enemy of the Oregon, who had testified, said:

'We will now call Admiral Schley.' Admiral Schley stepped forward was vindicated by the result of the and stood before the bar while Admiral Dewey advanced, met him and administered the oath. Customary salutations were exchanged and the the cruise to Key West, and his meeting there with Admiral Samp-

"My name is Winfield S. Schley, Rear-Admiral of the United States "The Admiral was very much Navy, serving at a court of inquiry," worn," he said, "and necessarily he replied in answer to the usual so, because his responsibilities preliminary question of Attorney number of orders, one of which dered to the command of the flying and the other the south coast of

Charles F. May Stole $75 from Woman. Charles F. May, who, though an American, fought for England against

MINISTER PRAISES FIREMEN. General Sessions of stealing $75 from Mrs. Margaret McDonald, of No. 669 East One Hundred and Forty-seventh street. Under the new Indeterminate The Rev. Charles E. Nash. D. D. of the North Baptist Church, at No. 224 West Eleventh street, has written a leterator Fire Commissions. The commissions of the commis

Delaware Bay.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 24,-The schooner Lida Fowler from San Andreas for Philadelphia, laden with cocoanuts ran into the wreck of the sunken schooner Lavinia Campbell in the Delaware Bay to-day and sank. The crew. with exception of Steward R. R. Evans. were it ken off safely. Evans was drowned in the hold. The Fowler is formed by C. S. Crowell, of Philadelphia.

This is the largest retaining fee ever paids above for second and the control of the control o ran into the wreck of the sunken

Viewinin Farmers Anxions to Hire

Hands. Superintendent George Blair, of the work for Mr. Haggin in the spring, that order might be preserved.

grew stronger, but was not loud enough of the way. to be heard by those in rear of the room. The Admiral took up the organization of the flying squadron at Norfolk, where, he said, "the general plan of campaign was thrashed out." Took the Helm Himself.

He said that the captains of his squadron had diversified views, and he imperative, and he resolved to take the helm himself. The Clenfueges would Spaniards were at Cienfuegos and question of torpedoes in the fleet was early discussed, and he decided the manner in which they should be cared for. Continuing he said:
"I put the squadron immediately upon a war footing, established the the masking of lights, which were under was.

"At first there was some fault found distinguish any one at more than ordinary distance from it."

He had, he said, explained it would . of battle, but he had made clear to his was his idea "to attack the head and us, and concentrate the fire upon her."
"My reasons for this," he continued "were two fold, the first being moral ney Rayner, dismissing Capt. Clark, fleet, which would result in the escape later," he said concluding this point. He then related the details of out of the engagement and wedding rings, which were worth $250, and went to the Hotel Martin, Ninth street and University Place, with his wife to live. "While there, he beat a backman out of $71.

"Then he went to Baltimore, and after spending his wife's money, $170, and all she possessed, he sent her back to New York to borrow money from her friends. Through her we discovered his whereabouts.

"The prisoner got the name 'Capt, cations in the precept. The Admiral "Ingulary so, because his responsibilities had been great. He showed me a number of orders, one of which was for a division of the two squadrons, one to take the north squadrons, one to take the north is narrative, following the specification in the precept. The Admiral was for a division of the two Havana. soundrons, one to take the north

J B HAGGIN PAYS AMOUNT FOR SECOND CALL ON JOCKEY.

ceived by a Boy for Such Service.

Jockey Wonderly has been signed to ride for J. B. Haggin next season. His paid a boy for second call, and the largest ever paid for any service, outside of HERE'S A CHANCE TO WORK. Harry Griffin, who was retained by Mr. Belmont for $17,000. Wonderly will ride for W. B. Jennings in California this winter, and begins Outdoor Department, received a letter Haggin is a multi-millionaire. He owns to-day from Everett, Va., stating that the Rancho Del Paso stud, which has labor is very scarce at that point. Those given to the turf many famous perlabor is very scarce at that point. Those who are willing to work can find plenty to co. Houses and food will be supplied and work found for them. The letter is signed by seven persons, who write on behalf of their fellow-farmers.

Advertise houses, homes and apartament of the following the form an active participation in the turf several years ago, but has raced a few horses in the name and contained the following the form of the work of spinning the large entired ors of Charles Littlefield. Next year Mr. Haggin contemplates racing on an extensive scale.

court. The word was passed around member not to attack heavily for after the outbursts of yesterday that tifled places on the shore until applause would not be permitted. Then, too, the marine guard was doubled of, that we must not risk the ships As the Admiral proceeded his voice until the Spanish fleet was out

"We discussed able destination.

"We looked over matter of pickets and patrols and also had studied the military situation of the island at all could have st inspection on several occasions to as- that Santiago would have fulfilled any certain how effective and complete it of the conditions of his instructions

"I told him that I had been or to report for duty to Admiral Remey, which I imagined necessariy meant himself, and that I wanted to him at the outset that I should be loyal absolutely and unreservedly to the cause

"Capt, Chadwick, who was pres know that it would be impossible for een established any means of there were pilots or whether any locality He told me that he did not know, but that when he got the situation better in hand he would communicate with me and that he thought it would be bette me to proceed to the blockade Cienfuegos as soon as possible. I said. Very well.' I was very glad, of course, to go anywhere. That terminated our convergation except so far as it related to complimentary allusions of such a visit."

Ordered to linvana. The Admiral said that he then left the New York and went on board his own flagship, in order to hasten the opera- 75 tion of coaling. Later the Algonquin came out with an order from the Secretary of the Navy to Commodore Remey lirecting the witness to proceed to

Admiral Schley said he signalled Admiral Sampson, and the latter said he understood that his (Sampson's) coming o Key West modified his (Schley's) orders and instructing him to carry our

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

DENTINGER FOUND GUILTY.

Charles J. Dentinger, formerly treasrer of the Amalgamated Painters and Decorators of New York, was convicted of grand larceny in the second degree in the Court of General Sessions to-day, for failing to account for $2.08.27 of the association's money, out of some $20.000 that he had disbursed.

tion Didn't Account for Funds.

MILE BY AUTO IN 1.06 2-5.

Winton Cuts Two-Fifths of a Secand Of Fournier's Record. DETROIT, Oct. 2L-Alexander Win-on, of Cleveland, drove his racing automobile a mile on the Grosse Pointe track this afternoon in 1.06 2-5, cutting wo-fifths of a second off the record, stablished by Henri Fournier, Mr. Winton made five consecutive

SNOW IN ADIRONDACKS HELPS DEER HUNTERS.

MALONE, N. Y., Oct, 24 .- A heavy snow storm prevailed to-day on the northern slope of the Adirondacks. This an excellent opportunity for deer hunters who are on this

WORK ON NEW BRIDGE.